CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

CONTRACTING OFFICER'S
DETERMINATION AND FINDINGS

AUTHORITY TO NEGOTIATE CONTRACT

The Central Intelligence Agency proposes to enter into a contract with Hycon Mfg. Company, Pasadena, California, for the purchase of 5 K-18 Cameras, Modified; 5 Magazines; and 1 Shutter.

I hereby find that this procurement under Project [REDACTED] is in the amount of [REDACTED] (Maximum); is chargeable to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and is for similar equipment previously developed by the Contractor for the Agency and now required in connection with an experimental, developmental and research program presently under procurement by [REDACTED] which will result in operational activities. I also find that this procurement is in the interest of National Defense and that it has been made in accordance with agreement between the Director of Central Intelligence [REDACTED]

I further find that certification of funds for this contract will be handled under the procedure approved by the Director of Central Intelligence on 15 December 1956 which in effect results in all 10(b) expenses involving issuance of Treasury checks being accumulated within the Finance Division and periodically certified as being under authority of Public Law 110, Section 10(b) by the Director.

I hereby determine as Contracting Officer for this contract that the necessity and authority for negotiation of this contract have been adequately documented by proper authority, and that the proposed contract must necessarily be negotiated without formal advertising.
